

We're pleased to welcome you to Beebe Library, serving the town of Wakefield for more than 150 years.

This map will show you where things are located in the building, but if you ever need help finding anything, by all means ask any of our staff. We're happy to help!

Beebe Library is a place to meet friends, attend programs, work on projects, do research, or browse for great things to read. In order to accommodate everyone's needs, we ask that you be respectful of the atmosphere around you so that others may enjoy the building as well.

These floor plans are color coded for different levels of noise and activity:

Green areas are social areas, just right for those who wish to talk with others.

Yellow areas are quiet areas, meant for those who wish to work or read with minimal disturbance.

Red areas are silent areas, ideal for working or reading with no disturbance.
