

2025 Suggested Reading for Students Entering Kindergarten

This list was created by the youth librarians at Beebe Library to help you find a book you will enjoy. For information about your school's summer reading assignments, please contact your school.

Starting on Monday, June 23, you can stop by the Youth Desk at Beebe Library to sign up for Summer at the Library 2025. It's FREE to sign up and to participate in all of the summer programs and activities at the library. Learn more at wakefieldlibrary.org/summer

Want more recommendations? Please ask us! Happy reading!

Kat, Annie, Ariel, Heidi, & Holly, Youth Services Librarians

Kindergarten: Where Kindness Matters Every Day by Vera Ahiiya

The first day of kindergarten is approaching and Leo, a shy boy, is not ready. He received a letter from his new teacher saying that the class would be making a kindness pledge and he should think about one thing he could do on the first day to show kindness. It turns out that Leo realizes that he is ready to be part of his class.

Children's Picture Book Ah

The King of Kindergarten by Derrick D. Barnes

Starting kindergarten is a big milestone—and the hero of this story is ready to make his mark! The day will be jam-packed, but he's up to the challenge, taking new experiences in stride with his infectious enthusiasm!

Children's Picture Book Ba

You Will Be My Friend! by Peter Brown

Lucy really wants to make a friend, but she is finding it much more difficult than she expected. She tried being helpful, she tried to fit in, she asked a lot of good questions, she invited other animals to be her friend, but nothing was working. Will she finally make a best friend?

Children's Picture Book Br

Kindergarten Kids: Riddles, Rebuses, Wiggles, Giggles, and More by Stephanie Calmenson

Kindergarten Kids is a fun collection of poems, puzzles, rebuses and more that celebrate the kindergarten year in one classroom.

Children's Nonfiction 811 Calmenson

Biscuit Goes to School by Alyssa Satin Capucilli

Biscuit the puppy has heard all about kindergarten. He knows that puppies aren't allowed in the classroom, but he really wants to see for himself what school is like.

Children's First Reader Capucilli

Look Out Kindergarten, Here I Come! by Nancy Carlson

Today is finally the first day of kindergarten and Henry can't wait! But, when he arrives at school he is not sure he is ready. As the day goes on Henry realizes that he is not only ready, he's having fun!

Children's Picture Book Ca

I Help* by Joe Cepeda

When a boy finds a canteen in his garage he also finds his superpower—helping. Cepeda writes fun books for very new readers.

Children's First Reader Cepeda

Pete the Cat and Pete the Kitty* series by James and Kimberly Dean

The coolest cat and kitty have some exciting adventures around home and even in space as they make friends and have fun. A good early reader series.

Children's First Reader Dean

Dory Fantasmagory* series by Abby Hanlon

Dory is a 6-year-old who doesn't want to grow up. The youngest in the family, she really wants her brother and sister to include her in their activities, but they treat her like a baby. So, she uses her amazing imagination and charm to create wild adventures. The series is an excellent family read-aloud providing lots of laughs and opportunities to talk to your new kindergartener.

Children's Early Chapter Hanlon

Wemberly Worried* by Kevin Henkes

Wemberly worries about everything. She's starting school and that makes her very worried. It is a charming book to start a discussion if there's a worrywart in your family.

Children's Picture Book He

Happy Cat* by Steve Henry

With three-word sentences and lovely visual cues, Happy Cat is a good first reader. A cold and hungry cat jumps through a basement window and he meets Rat, who invites him upstairs. As they walk up, Cat meets the neighbors, who each give him a gift. Cat realizes that he now has a place of his own.

Children's First Reader Henry

We Don't Eat Our Classmates* by Ryan T. Higgins

It's the first day of school for Penelope Rex, and she can't wait to meet her classmates... But it's hard to make human friends when they're so darn delicious! That is, until Penelope gets a taste of her own medicine and finds she may not be at the top of the food chain after all.

Children's Picture Book Hi

Fairy Tales* by Margaret Hillert

Margaret Hillert is the master of telling classic tales like Cinderella, The Three Billy Goats Gruff, Jack and the Beanstalk, and many other stories for the very beginning reader. She is the perfect author to help young readers build confidence.

Children's First Reader Hillert

How to Apologize* by David LaRochelle

Learning how to apologize is an important, and often difficult, skill to learn. This funny book has silly examples and is a practical guidebook about why, how, and when to say "I'm sorry."

Children's Picture Book La

See the Cat: Three Stories About a Dog* by David LaRochelle

See the Cat is three short stories that are about a dog. The dog gets irritated with the narrator who keeps talking about him as a cat. A very funny take on beginning readers. Also, See the Dog: Three Stories About a Cat and See the Ghost: Three Stories About Things You Can't See.

Children's First Reader LaRochelle

Horse and Buggy Plant a Seed* by Ethan Long

Best friends Horse (a horse) and Buggy (a bug) plant a seed, but they have trouble being patient waiting for the seed to grow. There are other books in this silly series.

Children's First Reader Long

Ty's Travels* series by Kelly Starling Lyons

Meet Ty! An imaginative, positive, young boy who loves to spend time with his family. Follow along with Ty as he camps out, goes to the beach, rides a bike, and enjoys other everyday fun.

Children's First Reader Lyons

See Me Run* by Paul Meisel

On a beautiful day in the park a pack of energetic dogs run, roll in the mud, dig, and find a surprise when they come across some bones.

Children's First Reader Meisel

Go, Otto, Go* by David Milgrim

Otto is a robot who crashed into Earth. He has made many friends, but who he really wants to see is his own family so he is working on a spaceship to travel home. The Otto series is for kids just starting to read. Part of the Ready-to-Read series for very first beginning readers.

Children's First Reader Milgrim

The Kissing Hand* by Audrey Penn and Ruth Harper

This classic book is perfect for the nervous new kindergartener's fears about the first day of school. Chester Raccoon is very worried about starting school. His clever mother shares a family secret with him called the Kissing Hand, to comfort him when he needs reassurance of her love.

Children's Picture Book Penn

Turtle and Tortoise Are Not Friends* by Mike Reiss

Ever since they were born, Turtle and Tortoise decided they would NOT be friends because their shells were different. For years they stayed on opposite sides of the pen ignoring each other. Then one day something happened and they needed to work together. Would they finally become friends?

Children's Picture Book Re

Mr. Putter and Tabby* series by Cynthia Rylant

A favorite family read-aloud, the Mr. Putter and Tabby series follows the adventures of an older gentleman and his fine cat. A very funny and heartwarming series.

Children's First Reader Rylant

Butterflies on the First Day of School* by Annie Silvestro

Rosie is very excited for her first day of kindergarten, but she finds herself feeling nervous. Her mom calls what she is feeling “butterflies.” She tells Rosie that it is normal to feel butterflies when starting something new. But, will the butterflies will go away, and her first day be fun?

Children’s Picture Book Si

Miss Bindergarten Gets Ready for Kindergarten* by Joseph Slate

Miss Bindergarten is hard at work to get her room ready for her new students. Meanwhile, we watch her 26 students as they get ready for their first day at school. An excellent book to learn about kindergarten and practice the alphabet.

Children’s Picture Book Sl

Interrupting Chicken* by Ezra Jack Stein

Little Red Chicken loves story time with her father. But, she has a very hard time not chiming in with her ideas during the reading. She wants to help the characters in the book, but Papa has to keep reminding her not to interrupt.

Children’s Picture Book St

That’s Not My Name!* by Anoosha Syed

Mirha is excited to be starting Kindergarten and to make new friends. But when she gets to school, no one pronounces her name correctly. She began to think that if she had an easier name for her classmates to pronounce she might fit in better. But, when mama shares with Mirha how special her name is, she decides to help her new friends learn to pronounce it correctly.

Children’s Picture Book Sy

Fox the Tiger* by Corey R. Tabor

Fox wishes he were a tiger. Tigers are big and fast and sneaky. So he decides to become one! Soon Turtle and Rabbit are joining in the fun. But will Fox want to be a tiger forever? Fox stars in other first readers, too!

Children’s First Reader Tabor

On the Night Before Kindergarten* by Rosemary Wells

On the night before kindergarten Milo is nervous. He keeps thinking about everything that could go wrong. He wanted his parents to go with him for the first day, but they couldn’t. Could he go alone?

Children’s Picture Book We

Cat the Cat series* by Mo Willems

Meet Cat the Cat and her friends in this very first reader series. Each story is a simple, sweet introduction to her friends, with a very unexpected funny ending.

Children’s First Reader Willems

The Day You Begin* by Jaqueline Woodson

Sometimes you may feel different. It could be how you look or talk, or what you bring for lunch or what you wear. Sometimes we all feel like an outsider. Woodson challenges us to be brave and to be proud of who we are, exactly as we are.

Children’s Illustrated Fiction Wo

